

Tristan PFAFF

With a memorable third concert at the Salle Gaveau, Tristan Pfaff celebrated twenty years of a flourishing international career that has taken him to perform in more than twenty countries and in the most prestigious venues: Victoria Hall in Geneva, the Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels, the Tchaikovsky Hall in Moscow, the Musée d'Orsay, the Villa d'Este, the Khachaturian Hall in Yerevan...

He is a regular guest at major festivals such as the Heidelberg Frühling Musikfestival, La Roque d'Anthéron, La Folle Journée, Auvers-sur-Oise, Biarritz, and Menton.

He also serves as artistic director of the Printemps Musical de la Roche-sur-Yon.

The general public also knows him for his appearances on television and radio programs such as Vivement Dimanche, La Boîte à Musique with Jean-François Zygel, and Culture Box.

He released five albums on Ad Vitam Records and three on Aparté (distributed by Harmonia Mundi).
